DERBY TO LEE. The following lines were written by the late Earl of Derby on the fly-leaf of a copy of his translation of "The lliad," presented by him to General Robort E. Lee, They are touching evidences of sympathy and appreciation on the part of the scholarly nobleman, who was aptly styled the "Rupert of Debate." The Ruperts of the nineteenth century werin spirit at least, ranged on the side of the South:

"The grave old Bard, who never dies. Received him in our native tongue; I send thee, but with weeping eyes, The story that he sung.

Thy Troy has fallen-thy dear land Is marred beneath the spoiler's heel; cannot trust my trembling hand To write the grief I feel.

"Oh, home of tears! But let her bear This blazon to the end of time; No nation rose so white and fa ", None fel: so pure of crime.

"The widow's moan, the orphan's wail, Are 'round thee; but in truth be a Eternal right though all things fail, Can never be made wrong.

"An angel's heart, an angel's mouth, (Not Homer's) could alone for me Hyme forth the great Confederate South-Virginia first, then Lee."

EXORBITANT CUSTOMS DUTIES. There is going to be trouble in Nicaragua unless something is done to relieve the present strain. The government of that republic is seemingly bent on driving out every American merchant from Bluefields. Gen. Torres, who is noted for his hatred of the United States, and President Zelaya are now attempting to enforce an exorbitant customs tanfl, which means the retirement from busi ness of every American now located at Bluefields. This is the reason that Consul Sorsby is bound for Washington.

Would Not Suffer So Again for Fifty Times its Price.

I awoke last night with severe pairs in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCardy's drug store and they re commended Coamberlain's Colie, Chol ers and Diarrhoes Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me al ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter for I should not care to endure the suf, ferings of last night again for fifty time its price .- G. H. WILSON, Liveryman Burgettstown, Washington Co., Pa. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

COAL AND WOOD

BY ELEVATING THE QUALITY of our coal we lower the price in economy of consumption. Consumers will find that it is cheaper to use our high grade Lee Coal, that has been screened and freed from slate and atone, than that of an inferior grade. It gives more heat, less sahes and burns longer than any other coal, and our prices are as low as any. Coal and Wood under cover.
